

English

- Narratives – Fairy Tales, Folk Tales
- Recounts – Personal experiences, Fairy Tales, Folk Tales

Grammar & Punctuation

- Fronted adverbials with commas
- Inverted commas with other punctuation
- Expanding the range of conjunctions

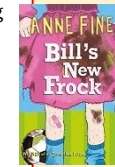

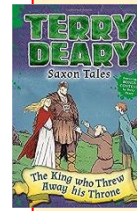

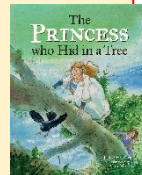

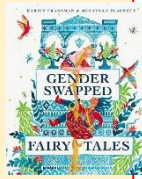

Spelling:

- Prefixes and suffixes

Reading

Developing our love of reading and developing our strategies by listening to, reading and discussing:

- Class books from our Reading Spine including 'Bill's New Frock'.
- Fiction including traditional and gender-swapped fairy tales and Saxon folk tales.
- Non-fiction, including topic loan books.
- Poetry.

Maths

- Mental strategies in + and -, including the use of place value.
- Learning and using x and ÷ facts in solving more advanced problems.
- telling the time, calculating time intervals and using m, cm and mm in the measurement of lengths.
- understanding and using formal written methods of + and -.

The SMASHING SAXONS

Science

Recognise that living things can be grouped in a variety of ways, e.g. classification keys. Group and compare living things from the local and wider environment. Collect data from around the school grounds and/or the local area and present the data in different ways.

Computing

Keeping safe online:

What is acceptable to share online, personal and private information, cyberbullying, searching online, passwords and spam.

PE

Defensive games

Orienteering

PSHE

Health & Well-being

Celebrating achievements and personal strengths. Discussing feelings and change. Knowing the consequences of choice and influence on choices. Being aware of risk, danger and hazards. Identify people who can help, learning strategies of how to keep safe.

History

Find out who the Anglo-Saxons were and where they came from. Discuss historical artifacts. Understand the terms 'Invaders' and 'Settlers.' Explore features of a Saxon village. Use various historical sources to find out about Anglo-Saxon life. Find out how Anglo-Saxon kingdoms were organized. Explore the life of Alfred the Great.

Art

Press printing and creating patterns. Children will create their own Anglo-Saxon fabric using a printing plate and fabric paint. Children will learn how to blend two or three colours in their printing.

French

JE ME PRÉSENTE (Presenting myself). Know how count to 20 in French. Ask somebody how they are feeling and give an appropriate response back. Ask somebody their age, name, where they live and reply.